SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER

Hello and welcome to the September newsletter.

As well as posting useful information and news in our newsletter, we also post items of interest on our various social media channels. If you haven't already done so, follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

UCAS applications can now be submitted for September 2025 entry

UCAS

If you are applying as a student of DistanceLearningCentre.com you will need to request a buzzword from your tutor, which will identify your application as being linked to DistanceLearningCentre.com.

In order to access the DistanceLearningCentre.com buzzword you must have completed and passed 6 Level 3 credits.

Further information about the UCAS process can be found on our UCAS web page. To find this from your account hub, click on the toolkit tab and from the drop-down menu select 'UCAS Application'. Remember to read all of our guidance as you will find lots of information and web links answering any queries and helping you with your research.

If you are applying as a DistanceLearningCentre.com student, your tutor will write your UCAS reference, but before they can do this you will need to complete a 'tutor information form'.

November Moderation 2024

No sooner does one moderation finish, the countdown for the next begins! The November moderation deadline is Friday 25th October.

Moderation is when assessment work that has been marked by your tutor is checked by the Awarding Body, Ascentis. During this process, final grades are confirmed and Diplomas are awarded. Certificates are then issued and these should be with successful students in January.

You need to have 45 credits completed by 13th September to remain on track for November moderation. Therefore, if you are aiming to complete your Diploma studies by this deadline, you need to use your Individual Learning Plan to organise your time over these last few weeks and talk to your tutor if you have any questions or need any advice.

March Moderation 2025

If you are aiming to take up a university place early in 2025 but will not be in a position to complete your Diploma in time for the November 2024 moderation, you can take advantage of our March 2025 moderation. The deadline for submission of assessments for March moderation will be 28th February 2025.

Online Sessions over September

We are excited to announce that starting this week, we will be rolling out regular 45-minute online sessions that you can attend. During these sessions our tutors will be on hand to answer general questions about your course and also questions about your assessments.

Some of the drop-in sessions will be for general guidance and others will be subject specific. A list of the dates for drop-in sessions that are relevant to your course of study can be accessed from your 'My Courses' tab by selecting 'Webinars' and then 'Coming up'.

The online sessions running this month are listed below:

- New Student drop In - 11th September 2024 at 7:30pm
- Course Induction Part 1 - 12th September 2024 at 7:30pm

Your questions answered

This month's question is:

Why do we ask you to check university entry requirements when you start?

Our answer:

We ask you to check university entry requirements when you start your course so that we are able to discuss with you whether you are on the right diploma to meet your entry requirements. There may be slight differences in the credits required in different subjects by universities and it is important to check that this is covered by the diploma you have selected before you get too far into the course. Changing your diploma may incur a charge and /or you may need to redo some units.
